

As part of our celebrations for the 150th anniversary of our wonderful organisation we have some cards and bookmarks available for sale.

It is intended that the cards and the original paintings will be featured at the Service in the Cathedral in July.

The cards come in three designs which were inspired by the song "Take Me Up The Tyne In A Little Boat", by Eric Boswell. Each painting features the "Little Boat". The song will introduce our celebration service. Boats are a feature in the North East's history, from coracles and ferries to trawlers and colliers. They symbolise the vulnerability of life, also our availability in faith for others

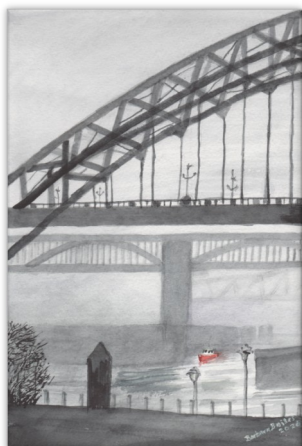

Each card is in A5 format and comes packed with an envelope. The cost per card is £1.00 minimum. The 150th anniversary logos are also featured on the inside and reverse of the cards. Profits to our local Mothers' Union Projects.

The bookmarks also have the three designs and there is a fourth with an image of Mary Sumner with the Mary Sumner Prayer printed on each one. On the reverse is our Diocesan 150th Lantern Logo. They cost 50p each.

The cards are not yet printed so it would be useful to have an idea of the demand for them.
